TAYLOR WAS TRAPPED

TERRIBLE ROASTING FOR THE CON-GRESSMAN AT EVANSVILLE.

Befused to Talk Polities at a Labor-Day Meeting with His Opponents on the Platform-State News.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Sept. 3.-Democrats here are absolutely wild to-night over the result of the political feature of Labor day celebration, and Congressman Taylor is a badly distressed man. James A. Hemenway, Republican; Arthur H. Taylor, Democrat, and James A. Boyce, Populist, all candidates in the First districe for Congress, were invited to appear to-day and make political speeches to the hundreds of wage-earners present. Hemenway responded in a masterly effort, in which Republican principles wre presented in an argumentative way, but Taylor refused to discuss politics, saying it was beneath the dignity of the occasion. He wanted to talk on other subjects, but was called down by President Drain, of the Central Labor Union, who then proceeded to belabor the Congressman in a manner that got many Democrats wild with rage. He accused Taylor of being unable to make a Democratic speech after being two years in Congress. Drain is a Populist. Boyce then "jollied" the crowd for an hour, giving little attention to facts and figures. He toyed with Taylor until he got that gentleman to answering him. Many of his questions were neatly-laid traps into which Taylor walked blindly. Taylor completely lost his temper. It is conceded that nothing more damaging could have happened to Democracy here than the events of to-day.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 3 .- The Labor day celebration at the fair grounds was a big success. A thousand or more farmers joined in the picnic. About one thousand tradesmen were in the morning parade The banks did not close and very few merchants observed the holiday, so that the participants were almost solely from the industrial classes. Eugene V. Debs had said he would deliver an address if he could be here, having refused six hundred invitations to other places, but he left for Chicago this morning to meet the lawyers for the defense in the United States Court contempt case. M. M. Garland, the national president of the Iron and Steel Workers' ssociation, delivered the principal address. He criticised the work of Congress and favored a national arbitration law, compelling ttlement of wage difficulties. He criticised the newspapers for the stand they took in the Pullman trouble. Judge J. N. Peeree, of this city, also spoke, and dwelt on the point that it is no longer a question whether the employer is giving the employe enough to live on, but whether the employe is get ting his full share of what his labor earned

The fiveyear contract which the Seymour Gaslight and Coke Company had with the city for ighting the streets with arc lights expires ext month. MARY BEST ADDS ANOTHER TO HER GOOD STRING OF VICTORIES.

John Cooper Takes the Labor-Day Stakes from Yo Tambien-Crowd at Latonia Yesterday.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3 .- Rather tame sport marked the opening of the Grand Circuit trotting meeting at Fleetwood Park to-day. Tomah started a hot favorite for the 2:30 trot. Almontine was expected to give the Boston horse something of a contest, but she proved not at her best. The Fleetwood purse for 2:20 trotters brought out a high class field, of which the California fouryear-old, Mary Best, was clearly the best on public form. Strontia trotted a great mile in the third heat, forcing the filly out in 2:131/2 on a track by no means fast, but his savage rushes failed to find the limit of the winner's speed, and she finished the mile well in hand, after going the hill to the half in 1:05. Favorite Not Good for the Distance in the Labor Day Stakes. NEW YORK, Sept. 3 .- In spite of threatening weather the attendance at Sheepshead Bay was as large as the usual holiday crowd and the racing was, by no means, up to the promise. When the scratching was over it could be seen that the greatest havoc had been made in the Labor-day handicap at a mile and a quarter, for only five had been left out of the original fourteen, and Yo Tambien was an even money favorite. John Cooper was the second choice and Saragossa third, while few wanted to bet on the others at any price. There was a long delay at the post, due to the bad behavior of Yo Tambien, who would not join her field, but after awhile she concluded to break. At the end of the first mile Pocahontas had run herself into the ground and gave it up while Hyderabad was in the same condition. Next to quit was Yo Tambien, and then John Cooper came away from the lot as if they were standing still and won easily from Saragossa. Summaries:

OINCINNATI, Sept. 3 .- A large crowd visited Latonia this afternoon, and the twenty bookmakers were insufficient to handle all the money offers. There were seven very ordinary races on the card, and favorites went down in the first three and won the last four. The even-money favorite, Promenade, was nowhere in the first race. Adam, 7 to 5, in the second, was beaten by Dominion. The surprise of the day was in the third race, in which Clementine, at prohibitive odds, again disappointed her followers, Eli, 8 and 12 to 1. winning in a common canter six lengths ahead of the favorite. J. P. B., Venice, Interior and La Creole, all well-backed favorites, carried off the money in the next four races. The track was dry and dusty, but still good time was made. Sum-

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ELWOOD, Ind., Sept. 3.-Claude Kramer, a sixteen-year-old bicyclist, who was entered to race in to-day's handicap bicycle races, came near being killed outright this morning while practicing on his wheel. A piece of board caught his wheel while he was going at full speed, overturning it and throwing Kramer nearly twenty feet, his head striking a stone, cutting a gash three inches long on the right side, rendering him unconscious. His skull was not fractured by the fall, but the shock was so great that it was some time before he regained consciousness. It is thought that he will recover.

DOUBT ABOUT

ARKANSAS DEMOCRATIC TICKET ELECTED BY 20,000 MAJORITY.

Colorado Democrats Finally United and Candidates Selected-Colonel Breckinridge's Campaign.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 3.-The elecon in this State was very quiet. It was the first State election held under the constitutional amendment, adopted at the last State election, requiring the presentation of a poll tax receipt at the polls. The Democrats and Populists had full State tickets in the field, but the Republicans put forth only a gubernatorial nominee. In some counties the Populists and Republicans fused, but in this (Pulaski) county the Republicans voted with the Democrats. The colored vote throughout the entire State has been unusually light. The Democratic State ticket, headed by Hon. James P. Clark, has been elected by about 15,000 to 20,000 majority. Returns are coming in slowly and as yet no figures are given. The contest was particularly warm at Fort Smith, and to-night both sides claim victory, with the indications slightly in favor of the anti-license people. hurch people in this city have been hard at work on this question for some time and had cast a large vote against license before the saloon men became aware of their movement. All afternoon the saloon men were working like beavers and the vote is close, though the saloonists have probably gained their point.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

ANDERSON, Ind., Sept. 3 .- Mayor John H. Terhune introduced Hon. M. M. Dunlap to the City Council to-night as Mayorelect and retired after two terms of active service. Mayor Terhune was elected by the Republicans in 1890 and re-elected by an increased majority in 1892. He served two years in the Council previous to his election as Mayor. During his administration the city has increased in population from ten thousand in 1890 to twenty thousand in 1894. Many public improvements have been inaugurated and completed during his official career, notable of which are erection of six large and handsome school buildings, nearly five miles of brick-paved streets, building and equipping an electriclight plant, constructing several miles of sewerage, extending and enlarging the wa-ter works. In fact, the development of Anderson from a county seat village to a 2-Mile handicap, Class B-C. R. Coulter, city of busy factories and modern improvements is due largely to his energy. M. M. Dunlap, Anderson's new Mayor, is a graduate of the State University, and formerly Mayor of Bloomington, Mr. Ter-hune is the Republican nominee for Rep-resentative for this county, and his election is conceded.

MAYORALTY CHANGES. At Kokomo Saloons Were Closed and Then Opened Again.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. KOKOMO, Ind., Sept. 3 .- To-day the new municipal administration, elected on the issue of law and order, went into power, and the war against the "liberal" and "wide-open" element has already commenced. The clash came on the Labor-day question. In the morning Marshal Bennett, on advice of Mayor Kirkpatrick and the Police Board, ordered all the saloons closed for the day. This mandate was respected until noon, when a telegram came from Attorney-general Smith to the effect that Labor day was not a holiday in a legal sense, and the saloons opened again and continued doing business the remainder of the day. Several saloon keepers will be arrested and a test case made. The ne regime has declared its purpose to wipe out all gambling places and compel a strict observance of the saloon law. As a result the valuable gambling implements have been boxed up and stored or shipped to other towns. The saloen men generally acquiesce in the new order of things, and will endeavor to conduct their business in conformity with the law.

Bright Day for Lafayette. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Sept. 3 .- This morning, at 8 o'clock, Lafayette became, officially, a Republican city, the first time for several years. Heretofore, while the Republicans have frequently had many of the offices, the Democrats have always had a hold on a greater or less number. This morning Hon. F. E. D. McGinley, Democrat, stepped down and out as Mayor of Lafayette, being succeeded by Noah Justice, Republican. Mayor McGinley began his political career in Ohio, where he was elected Mayor of Mechanicsburg in 1855. In 1869 Mr. McGinley was the Democratic nominee for Mayor of Lafayette, and was elected. He was again elected in 1873, 1881, 1883, 1889 and 1891, making him six elections by the people. The General Assembly of Indiana passed an extension law in 1893 which gave to city officials then in office an extension of their terms, that of Mayor being sixteen months. Mayor McGinley was thus accorded another year and a portion of a second. The extension term ended this morning, and the municipal affairs were turned over to Noah Justice. George T. Beardsley, city treasurer, and Stephen J Hannagan, city clerk, passed their respective offices over to James H. Mitchell and Thomas W. Burt, and to-night Lafayette is a Republican city so far as the officers are concerned. The Council, last May, went Republican, although the Democrats had redistricted the city under the McHugh act so that they confidently supposed they had made four of the seven wards solid for themselves. The voters did not approve of this, however, as the ballots demonstrated. The new Mayor, who is the police judge, had twenty-three cases to begin on.

Mayor Mott's Clean Sweep. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. HAMMOND, Ind., Sept. 3 .- When at 8 o'clock to-night Patrick Reilly vacated the mayoralty chair and Mayor-elect Fred R. Mott took the oath and office, this city, for the first time in its history, passed into the hands of the Republican party. The new Council, which stands five Republicans and three Democrats, went into office the Monday following the election. The Council chamber, which was highly decorated with flags and bunting, was packed with people when the Council convened tonight. The desk of the Mayor was covered with flowers. Joseph Ibash, on behalf of a number of citizens, presented Mayor Reilly with a gold-headed cane. After the new Mayor had taken his seat the members of the old police force were ordered to tender their resignations, to take effect next Monday night. Mayor Mott, in making the selections to fill their places, will be gov-erned by the advice of his friends, who compose the law and order element of the city. The new city officials are: Mayor, Fred C. Mott; clerk, Frank Hess, and treasurer, William Kleihege.

Muncie Sheds a Democrat.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MUNCIE, Ind., Sept. 3.-George W. Cromer to-day took charge of the affairs of the city of Muncie as Mayor, and the city is recovered from the Democracy, which has held the city offices for two years. Mayor Brady, who retires, has held the office with credit to his party. Mr. Cromer is one of the most active young Republicans in the State, with a bright future in the political world. He came from the farm to Muncie and became a lawyer. Henry Barton, Republican, also relieves City Treasurer Williams, a Democrat.

Veteran Officeholders Now Out.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. GREENFIELD, Ind., Sept. 3 .- To-day at noon George W. Duncan, Mayor; William G. Smith, treasurer; W. R. McKown, clerk, and Emory Scott, marshal, assumed the duties of the offices to which they had been elected last May. They are all Republicans and it is the first time Greenfield has ever had a complete set of Republican officials, ex-Mayor Herron had held office for the past eight years, and ex-Treasurer J. A. Flippo had been continually in the office for twenty years.

DeHority Retires Gracefully. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

ELWOOD, Ind., Sept. 3 .- This morning Mayor-elect W. A. Finch entered on the discharge of the duties of the office of Mayor of this city, vice W. A. DeHority. retiring, Democrat. Mr. Finch is the first Republican to be elected to that office in this city. Mayor DeHority gave a banquet at the Hotel Stevenson to-night to the city officials as a parting compliment to his successor in office.
